

Hi

New Members

DFG welcomes Stalker and Killer, the Clan's newest members. We now number 12, much the same number as any other Clan in Pariah. We are there guys. Let's get ready to rumble or as Twiki would put it "eat lead sucker(s)" DFG has arrived.

Bulletin Board

Things are beginning to happen. Well, Father Christmas was kind to us and brought DFG a present. We have a website. Get this everyone. It's called www.gaminglegends.net, it's ours and its advert free. Behind the mysterious looking black screen and simple white text, Legit and resident Consultant, Delnee are hard at work making the website and bully board. Soon we will be able to post to our hearts content. Be patient for just for a couple of weeks or so more, and it will be ready for action. If you have X-Fire and want to register a website in you profile feel free to use Gaming Legends. You will all be listed as Members of the DFG Clan on the website. Unlike BOSS, you won't be required to submit a pic to gain entry.

DFG Servers

The DFG Battleground and DFG Clan Server will be back in action weekend commencing Saturday 8th January 2006. We are going to run them later in the day so everyone has the opportunity to join. To help us fix an appropriate time please send an e-mail to me (doglin@hotmail.co.uk) with your local e.g. Hawaii (I wish) and time zone relative to GMT e.g. GMT-10 hrs.

Thanks to =DFG=WhiteKnight for running a sever over the Christmas break. It was fun playing the game with you.

Promotion

For WhiteKnight's dedication to the DFG cause, WhiteKnight takes on the rank of Sergeant. Nice one WhiteKnight.

Hope you all have happy New Year.

Bark up my tree and ..... you're liable to get p---d on.

(Or as [BOSS] Golani found out, blown up by a well timed grenade located somewhere near his head.....despite the skull fracture we are still good friends)

Woof Woof
